MESSAGE:

These are press releases I have sent to CBC-TV. I have strong reasons to believe the CBC regional management have informed against me and a political persecution ordered by the PM is underway. I need the immediate public support of my MP and the B.C. TORY MPs. Charlottetown constitutional process was an elaborate setup by the PM to settle political scores and eliminate potential political opponents. I'll get in touch later.

CBC-TV,

This press release is to inform you of a civil writ, filed by me at the Vancouver Registry of the Supreme Court of British Columbia, against the University of British Columbia and Royal Canadian Mounted Police for damages inflicted on me by both defendants and Dr. Maria Klawe, agent ~~in~~ the first defendant. A statement of Claim is enclosed. I will discuss the role of Dr. Klawe's Mulroney-style of leadership in originating and escalating disputes between her and me, and in causing damages to me as well as to the University. I will also discuss the role of Prime Minister Mulroney's leadership in causing damages both to the Meech Lake and Charlottetown Constitutional accords and to the economy during the constitutional processes. I will also suggest the role the people of Canada should play to prevent further <sup>such</sup> damages. The following are my statements:

- * In August or September 1990, Dr. Klawe deliberately misled me to withdrawing my application for a tenure-track position in the Computer Science Department by misrepresenting to me information regarding vacancies, causing me serious financial loss.

..Attached To

NUV 30 1992

* This action by Dr. Klaue was in retaliation for my speaking my mind during a previous recruiting incident, in which Dr. Klaue escalated small differences of academic opinions into serious political fights and broke the university regulation to prevent a timely job offer from being made to Dr. Pascal van Hentenryk, resulting in the possible loss of an outstanding faculty member to the University.

* On July 2, 1992, during the University's attempt to evict me<sup>from my office</sup>, I was falsely arrested and falsely imprisoned by RCMP, and suffered emotional trauma and humiliation.

* Dr. Klaue was directly responsible for my false arrest and false imprisonment by RCMP. She bullied other members of the Department, who were sympathetic to my plight but were uninformed and uncertain about the true situation, into taking a stand supporting her without my knowledge. She then misrepresented this information to me ~~and~~ and misled me to making any unwilling and self-implicating statement out of my care for my fellow Department members, and used it as evidence to frame me with the ~~the~~ University administration and RCMP.

Attached To.

- * The University administration unfairly favored Dr. Klave in its handling of my internal grievances. Dr. Klave's office conducted superficial investigations regarding Dr. Klave's handling of my job application, which simply ignored clear evidence presented by me about Dr. Klave's misconduct in the van Hartenryk incident.
- * Part of the damages I suffered, namely false arrest and false imprisonment, could have been avoided had my fellow Department members been more resolute in taking the matter into their hands when I repeatedly appealed to them.
- * Dr. Klave's confrontational style of leadership and hardball tactics, both professional and personal, are the ultimate cause of the devastating damages I suffered and the serious damages the University suffered.
- * Dr. Klave's leadership style bears striking resemblance to the leadership style of Mr. Brian Mulroney as the Prime Minister of Canada.
- * Prime Minister Mulroney's leadership style, while effective for handling legislations that are unpopular in the short-term but may have significant economic benefits in the long run, is not only fundamentally unfit for, but detrimental to either building national consensus in constitutional reform or nursing the economy ~~during~~ recession. His confrontational approach and scare tactics bear the ultimate blame for both the Meech Lake and the Charlottetown constitutional fiascoes, and have during the constitutional processes inflicted considerable damages ~~on~~ the economy. Yet the politicians of this country, willingly or unwillingly, are turning a blind eye to the apparent failure of his leadership and its fallouts, ignoring the grave danger the continuance of his leadership poses to the well-being of the country and of the people.

* The existent political process of this country has failed the people. We, the people of Canada, must now take the destiny of the country ~~into~~ our own hands. We must speak our mind loud and clear, and force the politicians to face reality, to hold Mr. Mulroney accountable for his irresponsible actions, and to remove him from the leadership position of the country immediately. Until they do so, the politicians of this country will not have the trust of the people. Only People Power, the angry, outraged voices of Canadians from coast to coast, will prevent Brian Mulroney and the politicians from running

Canada. We, the people of Canada, are not afraid of Mr. Mulroney. The future of Canada is now at stake, and we will rise to this grand challenge: Fight for Canada, and Save Canada from Brian Mulroney!

ATTACHED TO AND FORMING A PART OF THE WRIT OF SUMMONS HEREIN

STATEMENT OF CLAIM

1. The Plaintiff, Dr. Feng Gao, is a computer scientist and resides at 201 - 1540 West 11th Avenue, Vancouver, British Columbia, V6J 2B9.
2. The Defendant, The University of British Columbia ("U.B.C.") is a university within the meaning of the "University Act" R.S. 1979, c. 419, with executive offices at 6328 Memorial Road, Vancouver, British Columbia, V6T 2B3.
3. The address for the Defendant, Royal Canadian Mounted Police ("R.C.M.P.") connected with this action is at University Detachment, 2990 Wesbrook Mall, University of British Columbia, Vancouver, British Columbia, V6T 2B3.
4. At all times material to this action, Dr. Maria Klawe, was acting in the scope of her employment with the Defendant, U.B.C. as head of its Computer Science Department.
5. In or about February 1990 the Plaintiff submitted an application to Dr. Maria Klawe seeking a tenure track position with the Defendant U.B.C.
6. At a meeting in August or September 1990 between the Plaintiff and Dr. Maria Klawe, Dr. Klawe informed the Plaintiff that the Department had only one open tenure - track position with another to be available soon pending the departure of another faculty member; but that neither of these positions were in the area of the Plaintiff's expertise.
7. In fact at the time of this meeting there were a total of three available tenure - track positions one of which was open to candidates in one of the areas of the Plaintiff's expertise, namely numerical analysis.
8. Dr. Klawe knew, or reasonably ought to have known because of the special nature of the relationship between the Plaintiff and Dr. Klawe, that the Plaintiff would rely upon her representations.
9. Relying upon the aforesaid representations of Dr. Maria Klawe the Plaintiff withdrew his application for a tenure - track position and accepted a one year fixed term contract extension with the Defendant, U.B.C.
10. Dr. Maria Klawe acting on behalf and with the patensible authority of the Defendant, U.B.C., at the aforementioned meeting deliberately misled the Plaintiff or, in the alternative, negligently mis-stated facts to the Plaintiff by informing the Plaintiff that no tenure - track positions were open to candidates in his fields.

- open to candidates in the 11. At no time material were these misrepresentations of the Defendant, U.B.C., through its employee and agent Dr. Maria Klaue, made to the Plaintiff under the lawful authority of any statute.

  12. Because of the deliberate or negligent mis-statements of Dr. Klaue the Plaintiff sacrificed the opportunity to obtain a tenure - track position at U.B.C. and has suffered serious financial loss as a result thereof.
  13. The Plaintiff has made diligent efforts to mitigate his losses by finding alternative employment in his areas of expertise but at the date of this Statement of Claim has been unsuccessful in doing so.
  14. That the usual practice at the Computer Science Department at U.B.C. was to allow a reasonable time after the expiration of a term of employment for faculty members to vacate their academic offices provided.
  15. Following the usual practice the Plaintiff returned to his office on the morning of 2 July 1992, the first working day after formal expiration of his contract.
  16. That both of the Defendants unlawfully caused the Plaintiff to be arrested, handcuffed, and incarcerated.
  17. At no time material was the Plaintiff committing any offence under the Criminal Code.
  18. The officers of the Defendant, R.C.M.P., (University Detachment) had no reasonable basis to believe that the Plaintiff was committing or about to commit any criminal offence which would justify the arrest, handcuffing, and incarceration which ensued on 2 July 1992.
  19. The arrest of the Plaintiff and his detention was, on the part of both Defendants, without legal basis and actuated by malice.
  20. As a result of the false arrest and imprisonment of the Plaintiff the Plaintiff suffered serious emotional trauma and humiliation.

WHEREFORE THE PLAINTIFF CLAIMS:

AS AGAINST THE UNIVERSITY OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

This is a supplement to the press release
I sent you concerning my lawsuit against UBC in which I also discussed Prime Minister Brian Mulroney's leadership style and the damage his leadership has done to the country.

Mr. Stan Wilbee, MP for Delta, B.C., has spoken out publicly, criticising Mr. Mulroney's leadership and requesting a province-by-province Tory leadership review. The B.C. Tory MPs should speak out now in support of Mr. Wilbee, reaffirm their confidence in him as the B.C. caucus chair, and defy Mr. Mulroney's threats of retaliation by means of cabinet restructuring or by any other means. Reducing the size of the cabinet and the bureaucracy is an idea of strong merits in principle, but should <sup>be</sup> done on the basis of careful analysis and planning, and ~~must~~ not be used as a means to punish or suppress valid dissenting opinions. In any case, it should take a back seat to the most pressing issue facing the country right now, that of Mr. Mulroney's fitness as the prime minister. Whether this issue can be resolved promptly and satisfactorily will have serious effects on the economy. Any substantial restructuring of the cabinet, if needed, should come only afterwards. As for the position of the Constitutional Affairs Minister, it is not yet redundant. Before taking up any new tasks, Mr. Joe Clark needs to give the people of Canada an adequate explanation for the recent Charlottetown constitutional fiasco and a satisfactory account of the full extent of damages the latest constitutional adventure of the Tory government has done to both national unity and the economy.

This press release is in response to the news that Prime Minister Brian Mulroney has just ordered $5 billion in spending cuts that possibly range from the military, foreign aid to training programs, the unemployed and even social programs, allegedly to avoid a near-record deficit and better the government's chances of re-election.

Our country is in a deep political crisis. Out of his self-interest, Brian Mulroney is leading our country onto a dangerous path. He must be stopped at once before he ruins our country.

Drastic spending cuts not only are against the fundamentals of economics when applied during a slow and fragile economic recovery from a deep recession, but given the targets chosen would have devastating consequences on the well-being of the people and on the standing and position of our country in the international community. Cuts on the military and on the foreign aid would endanger Canada's pre-eminent peacekeeping role and Canada's reputation as not only the United Nations' No. 1 country on earth but a country that has held out a generous helping hand to the less fortunate people in the world. Proposing cuts on training programs, the unemployed and social programs, coming on the heels of a lavishly-funded constitutional process, shows Brian Mulroney's total disregard for the welfare of ordinary people. His alleged objective of deficit reduction <sup>or containment</sup> is nothing more than an excuse for pursuing his goal of saving his own political skin at the cost of the country and the people.

Brian Mulroney's leadership record is a horrible one. His economic initiatives caused considerable short-term negative economic effect a lot of which could have been avoided. His constitutional adventures have done nothing but damages to both national unity and the economy. The horse-trading approach he employed during the final stage of Charlottetown constitutional negotiation after he pushed Joe Clark aside (Poor Mr. Clark, he never failed Mr. Mulroney, not yet anyway) and discarded proposals based on the efforts of many experts, political leaders and ordinary people, together with his hardball tactics during the referendum campaign, caused the massive No votes across the country and the resulting division and resentments among people. His confrontational statements also started the current period of relative high interest rates that ~~likely significantly~~ prolonged ~~the~~ the recession, and adversely affected people's lives. After the lesson of Meech Lake, Brian Mulroney did it over again, this time on a larger scale and causing much more serious damages. They like to say Mr. Mulroney never learns? Well, he can't be that dumb, can he?

The people of Canada want to see Brian Mulroney go, and we also want to see him held accountable for the damages he has done to our country. Politicians are elected by the people, and they must respect the will of the people. In order to regain the trust of the people, the Tory MPs must now rise to their feet, conduct a ~~natural~~ <sup>party</sup> leadership review, condemn Brian Mulroney for his grave mistakes and wrongdoings, and ~~refuse~~ remove him from the leadership position of the country promptly. The people of Canada are giving the politicians a choice : stand by the people, or be swept away along with Brian Mulroney

by People Power.
